Matrix Travel

In 1997 Matrix Travel has formed an incoming division designed primarily to facilitate the requirements of clients travelling to Europe. Knowing that every journey begins with a personally designed itinerary, we put time and utmost care into all the preparations required. Once in Europe, our customers can expect that every phase of their journey is monitored and well serviced. All the way, you can benefit from the local expertise and competence of our agency.

Our dynamic and experienced professional team can react elastically to your personal needs, budget and lifestyle – from simple hotel reservation to a private package tour. We are experts in the field of tailor made tours, business trips, motivational and incentive tours, workshops, and training programs. Needless to say that MATRIX provide you with air tickets to all countries around the world at the lowest rates available, together with transport and transit services that include renting a car to transportation by luxurious limousines.

All European countries are rich in monuments, mountains, stylish cities, rivers and lakes, national parks and excellent ski and beach resorts. With historical monuments and remarkable places of countless natural beauty, Europe is a real paradise for tourists. UNESCO has recognized the importance of many European places by assigning them the status of World Heritage Monument. Culturally interested travelers will always be rewarded by touring Europe. Or otherwise just try diverse regional cuisines and enjoy the best golf courses and shopping malls.
